"CHASTANG"

Mobile, Alabama
1704

The Chastang family were among the original settlers of this country, and of what is now the State of Alabama. They came to this Country in the year 1600 and first settled in Canada, later migrating to Virginia, Georgia and Alabama.

In Mobile, Alabama (the first Capital of Louisiana) they were known as "the Chastang's of Chastang Station", or "Chastang Bluff". This particular branch of the family are said to have the blood of Doctor Jean Chastang. While in Mobile the Doctor lived on the corner of Sepira and Pineus, but later moved to the Bluff named for him. The Chastang patois is French.

The Chastang's were among the first Creole's of this country (the correct interpretation of the word meaning "pure French and pure Spanish"). The Chastang's family connections were, among others, the Rochon's; the Montilemar's; the Fieure's, etc.

Genealogie
"Chastang"

The Genealogy Records of the New Orleans Public Library show the name "Chastang" as having originated in France.

The family came to this Country in the 1600's and first settled in Canada. They came down into Virginia, Georgia and Alabama and were among the original settlers of the State of Alabama. The name is known both as "Chastang" and "Chestang", but the original family spelled it with an "a".

The American State Papers in Vols. 1, 3 & 5 show the name as "Chastang", and show the family among the original settlers of Mobile, Alabama in the year 1600, at that time called "The Louisiana Territory".

In Hamilton's "History of Mobile" the name is also shown as "Chastang" - known as the "Chastang's of Chastang Station" or "Chastang's Bluff".

This particular branch of the family are said to have the blood of Doctor Jean Chastang. The Chastang Patois is French and the name is pronounced "Shastan".

The family connections were, among others, the Montilemar's, the Rochon's, the Fieure's and the Ydalgo's.

Son of John and Ann Bilbo

Thomas Bilbo was born 20 June, 1776 in Lunenburg Co. VA. He married 12 July, 1804 in Columbus, Mississippi Territory to Anna Marie Lawrence, daughter of Richard Lawrence. Anna was born 7 April, 1788 in VA., and died 1870 in Lake Charles, Calcasieu Parish, LA.

It is known from the will of John Bilbo that he left his son, Thomas Bilbo a horse, saddle and bridle and nothing more.

Thomas was still living in Mecklenburg Co. VA. in 1799 as he witnessed the will of his Uncle, James Bilbo. Shortly after this time he left for the Mississippi Territory. He is found in the Territory in the early 1800's as a surveyor. During the year 1812 Jackson County was formed and the County seat was established at Thomas Bilbo's house.

Thomas served as a Judge for the County. The War of 1812 had started and the 17th Regiment was formed with Bilbo elected as Major. The Unit fought the Creek Indians and served with Andrew Jackson at New Orleans.

Thomas Bilbo left Mississippi and settled in St Landry Parish, LA., in 1832. He moved into Contonement Atkinson which was formerly used a Fort for Army troops. He was the second settler on the lakefront at Lake Charles, LA.

Bilbo helped to form Calcasieu Parish, LA., and served on the first Police Jury (County Court). He engaged Thomas Rigmaiden as the first teacher in the Parish and paid him from Parish funds.

Thomas Bilbo had numerous people stop at his place as he was located on "The Old Spanish Trail". The Texas Revolution was in March 1836 with General Santa Anna of the Mexican Army having been captured. Santa was released on November 26, 1836 and was escorted to Washington by three Texas Army Officers. They stopped for the night at Bilbo's a few days later. Thomas Rigmaiden, the School Teacher kept a diary which read: "Heard Santa Anna at Mr. Bilbo's last night." The diary also had an entry that Thomas Bilbo died September 20, 1846.

Thomas Bilbo left his will dated 24 April, 1844 and probated 3 October, 1846 at Calcasieu Parish, LA. His widow Ann was executrix with sons, Joseph Lawrence, William L. and son-in-law, Columbus Gillett as executors, without giving bond.

Thomas Bilbo

Thomas Bilbo was born 20 June 1776 in Mecklenburg County, Virginia, the son of John and Ann Walker Bilbo. The first mention of Thomas is found in the Virginia tax assessment records for 1799 and 1801. He was on the Personal Tax Lists-1800 Upper District, Mr. Joseph Bannister Clausel, Commissioner and the Tax Lists-1800 Lower District, John Holmes, Commissioner in Mecklenburg County, Virginia. Thomas Bilbo also witnessed a will of his uncle, James Bilbo, in Mecklenburg in 1799. It is possible Thomas Bilbo lived in Georgia for a very short time. J.F.H. Claiborne wrote, "Thomas Bilbo...was a surveyor from Georgia-a man of intelligence-who subsequently removed to what is now Calcasieu Parish, Louisiana."

Thomas Bilbo's stay in Georgia was short because sometime between 1802 and 1804, he was living in the Tombigbee River settlement in the Mississippi Territory. On 13 July 1804, he married Ann Lawrence, the daughter of Joseph and Ann Lawrence of Washington County. The Lawrences moved to the Mississippi Territory in the late 18th Century and owned a great amount of land in the area of the Tombigbee River Settlement. The wedding took place at McIntosh Bluff, in Washington County. The county was a part of the Mississippi Territory but today it is in the state of Alabama. In the Deed Book it reads:

There are many accounts of Thomas Bilbo, surveyor, where he surveyed land claims for the early settlers of the Mississippi Territory. One such transaction Reads:

On 16 October 1804, "Thomas Bilbo for sum $500.00 paid business transaction was witnessed by Joseph Lawrence and Leonard D. Shaw.

In 1812, Thomas Bilbo moved to Jackson County, Mississippi and played an important role in the development of the county. He received two land grants on the Pascagoula just south of the present town of Benndale now in George County. George County was formed in 1910 from Jackson and Green counties. Thomas Bilbo received land in Section 43, Township 2N, Range
8W on the east side of the river and in Section 41,
Township 2N, Range 8W on the west side of the river.
Land in this area was not divided into the traditional 36 section townships of 640 acres per section because of the irregular Spanish and English land grants in this area before it became a part of the United States. Thomas Bilbo built his home on the west side of the river near Benndale. According to A.C. Ramsey in his Autobiography "Major Bilbo's place was on a high, beautiful, elevated bluff and a ferry kept at the river, about one quarter of a mile from the house; sufficiently near to hear the signal of persons wishing to cross over....The house consisted of two rooms with a passage between." The early seat of the Jackson County government was at the "House of Bilbo" and remained there for several years.

Thomas Bilbo served as Chief Justice of the Quorum Court in 1812, 1819 and 1823. In 1817 Mr. Bilbo, along with "Long John" McLeod, was selected to serve as a member of the Mississippi Constitutional Convention and was one of the signers of the finished document.

Thomas Bilbo served as a member of the Mississippi State Legislature in the years 1821, 1822, 1824, 1825 and 1829. He prospered while residing in Jackson County. The tax lists credited him with 2240 acres of land and 18 slaves in 1828. His younger brother, William Ray Bilbo, lived near and owned seven slaves and an estate of nearly seven hundred acres of land. Thomas served as a Major in the Jackson County State Militia and in the War of 1812 as a Major in the 17th Mississippi Regiment. Family tradition has it that an old razor owned by Mrs. G.L. Bilbo was owned by Thomas Bilbo was once used by Andrew Jackson. Whether or not the razor was used by Jackson or not it did belong to Thomas Bilbo. It is most likely Bilbo met Jackson. Andrew Jackson traveled through the county at least once while Bilbo was living there and as one of the leading citizens of Jackson it must be assumed he met the famous general. Another family tradition has it that Bilbo had several business transactions with the famous pirate Jean Lafitte. William Ray Bilbo also served in the War of 1812 and remained in Jackson County when Thomas moved to Louisiana. Tradition has it that William Ray Bilbo was killed by a slave who struck him with a fence rail. William Ray Bilbo was married to Charlotte Ryan the daughter of Isaac Ryan.

While living in Jackson County, Thomas Bilbo was instrumental in helping build one of, if not the first school in the county. The school was built in 1818 "...across the road from the church and cemetery about one-half mile from Peter Fairley's mill." Mr. A.C. Ramsey wrote as follows:

This [school] was taught by Mr. Neill Little, a brother in law of Peter Fairley, Esq. and but recently from North Carolina, a Scotchman. Here were thrown together, as pupils, all sizes and ages, from little boys and girls to grown young men and women; and of course as different in temperments and dispositions as in their ages and sizes; and many who had probably never been in school before. Hence the oversight and control of these different elements...was to the teacher ... a subject of deep concern. But believing himself master of the situation...he arranged and marshalled his classes, promulgated his rules and went to work.

The next thing in order was to introduce a large chinquapin hickory in the school room; much to the alarm and fright of the little ones if not to some of the larger ones also.

Some of his rules, were simply ridiculous, unheard of, not calculated in their execution to accomplish any good whatever, but to consume time which should have been employed in study by the scholars; and which often produced in the minds of some a disposition of insubordination and sometimes levity and disobedience rendering it necessary, as he thought, to use the rod and generally severely.

Mr. Little created a jury to determine the guilt and punishment for students who broke the rules of the school. Many of the cases were not determined on the merits of the case "...but from personal spleen which some of jurors bore towards the accused." Mr. A.C. Ramsey stated:

Fortunately for me, I never was put to the painful necessity of being tried by a jury. I was as afraid of him as I would have been of a bear. Constantly in dread. Kept my mind and eyes constantly on my book and never was subjected to any of his silly modes of punishment, but once, and that was for missing to spell correctly a word, and which was "Hatteras" I shall never forget it.

Mr.A.C. Ramsey never did forget. The above event took place in 1818 and the Autobiography was not written until 1879. Several other events took place in the little school. Jane Bilbo, the daughter of Thomas Bilbo was forced to "...stand in the center of the floor until the whole school[said] their lessons round." On another occasion Mr. Little took off his suspenders and tied them around little Roderick Matheson's "...neck and raise him from the floor, so that the little fellow, was nearly strangled before he let him down." The teacher also threatened to hang little Edward Deas from a large limb on the white oak tree near the spring. He tied the suspenders around the little fellow's neck but Deas escaped and ran home. According to Ramsey "These two little boys never learned anything during the six months Little taught that school." Schools in the early history of Mississippi were either "...three months or six months schools." The parents of the community informed Mr. Neill Little that his services were no longer needed and the patrons engaged Alexander Fairly. Mr. Fairly "...proved to be an acceptable teacher to parents and children....The students ...now advanced and learned well under the mild, persuasive, and reasonable discipline of Mr. Fairley." The next mention of a school was at "...Thomas Bilbo's on the river...." The "...school house was situated about one quarter of a mile from the residence at the south side of an old field...." The home of Thomas Bilbo was visible from the small school. Samuel W. Francis and Norman McLeod were two very fine teachers who taught at the school at Bilbos. After A. C. Ramsey finished school he taught in several schools including the school in "...Thomas Bilbo's neighborhood."

Thomas Bilbo was most likely a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. His son, John was a circuit rider for the Methodist Episcopal Church as was A.C. Ramsey. Ramsey several times referred to Thomas Bilbo as "Brother." He also wrote that while traveling with Isaac V. Enocks, a circuit rider, they had an appointment "...at Bilbo's Church."

In or about 1832, Thomas Bilbo moved to Lake Charles, Louisiana. William H. Perrin wrote, "Immediately subsequent to 1824, came John Bryan, Richard West, William Praither, Able Lyons, Thomas Bilbo....They formed a settlement to themselves." It must be assumed Perrin was confused about the date because Thomas Bilbo was listed in the United States Census for Jackson County, Mississippi in 1830. Why Mr. Bilbo, a man of considerable wealth and political power would move is simply speculation. One explanation could be the severe weather in Jackson County between 1813 and 1833. In 1813 there was a terrible hurricane followed by a "year without summer" in 1816. In 1816 there was a freeze as late as April 16 and a killing frost on June 3. In 1817 there was year of constant rain followed by another hurricane in 1819. In 1823 there was another very cold winter when the temperature dropped to five degrees on February 16 and this was followed by a very dry summer in 1825. If this was not enough, in 1832 and 1833, there were very heavy rains and floods. Bilbo had left in 1832 but his friends and neighbors in Jackson County witnessed a fearful sight in 1833. The "falling of the stars" caused a great amount of fear among many of Bilbo's friends and neighbors in Jackson County. One other cause for moving may have been an episode between his son in law, Wyatt Dupree and one of Bilbo's daughters. For a full account of this affair see A.C. Ramsey's account at the end of this narrative.

Whatever the cause, Thomas Bilbo moved to Lake Charles and purchased 640 acres of land for $500. This land included all the land from the present day Hodges Street to the lake and from Pujo Street to the Calcasieu River. This area included much of present-day Lake Charles. He took up residence in old Fort Atkinson located on the shore of Lake Charles. All that is left of the old home site is the small Bilbo family cemetery and a historical marker that reads:

1829 Cantonment Atkinson 1832

A military post established by the Federal Government for the protection of Louisiana against illicit border warfare following the Louisiana Purchase

Placed by Calcasieu Chapter, DAR
20 November 1940

The old fort "...stood in a grove of pecan trees" near the lake. It was remodeled into a fairly comfortable house of fifteen rooms with a "dog run" down the center. The old building was of unhewn logs fitted in tongue and groove fashion and "...was encased in mill-planed lumber inside and out. The walls were adorned with antlers and buckskins lay on the floor." While living in Lake Charles, Margaret was born on 9 March 1832. All the other children of Thomas Bilbo were born in the Mississippi Territory or in the state of Mississippi. Margaret died as a child on 8 April 1840 and was the first to be buried in the family cemetery in Lake Charles, Louisiana.

As in Mississippi, Thomas Bilbo became involved in community affairs. Before he died in 1846, he served as election commissioner, assessor and served on the school board of the Imperial Calcasieu Parish School.

The old fort that served as the home of Thomas Bilbo was sold to J.A. Bell Lumber Company ca 1907. It was destroyed by a hurricane on 6 August 1918 and all that is left is the old family cemetery and the historical marker. "Approaching Lake Charles from the west on old U.S. 90, the observant driver might notice a small cemetery nestled among the trees on the northwest shore of the lake." It is overshadowed by a large, modern motel and is deep in weeds, an object of desecration and in poor repair.

The Thomas Bilbo family was linked with several other leaders of Lake Charles. His daughter, Rebecca, married Jacob Ryan, Jr., the "Father of Lake Charles." Thomas sold Ryan the southern end of his estate. Thomas Bilbo's son, Joseph Lawrence married Elmira Hodges, a young lady thirty years younger than himself. Joseph L. Bilbo became very much involved in the affairs and politics of Lake Charles. Like his father, he became a surveyor and surveyed much of the land in and around Lake Charles. When Lake Charles was incorporated in 1867, he became one of the first aldermen of the new city. Thomas Bilbo's daughter, Ann Moore married Columbus Gillett who became a very successful businessman in Williamson County, Texas.

Thomas Bilbo's long and active life came to an end on 20 September 1846, and was buried in the family cemetery on the shores of Lake Charles. He was buried near his youngest daughter, Margaret and his oldest son, John. The wife of Thomas, Ann Lawrence Bilbo lived over twenty years after her husband's death. She lived with her son, Joseph L. Bilbo and later with her son in law, Jacob Ryan, Jr. In the Census of 1870, Calcasieu Parish, Louisiana, she was listed with the Jacob Ryans and was recorded as 83 years of age. It is believed she died the next year, 1871. Very little is left to remind you of the Bilbo family's stay in Lake Charles. Outside of the small cemetery, there are a few streets named after members of the family. The most significant is Bilbo Street, one of the main streets in the older part of Lake Charles.

The oldest son, John Bilbo became a circuit rider for the Methodist Church; with him our story continues.

Dear Family and Friends,

Welcome to our third Bilbo Family Reunion. As family and friends, let us fellowship together in the spirit of Love, Hope, Faith and Unity.

To those who have traveled a long distance and to those whose journey was short, your presence is deeply appreciated.

May we remember in Prayer, those who had a desire to be here, but were unable to attend.

Let us also cherish the precious memories of our dear departed ones.

We must continue to give thanks to God, for our past, our present and our hopes for the future.

It has been a pleasure working with you and planning for this wonderful occasion. May this and previous reunions, as well as those that are yet to come, more closely bind the members and friends of the Bilbo Family

Love, Hope, Faith and Unity

Love shall be our token, Love be yours and love be mine. Love to God and all men, Love for plea and gift and sign.

In Hope, against all human hope, Self-desperate, I believe; Thy quickening word shall raise me up, Thou shalt Thy spirit give Faith, mighty faith, the promise sees, and looks to that alone: Laughs at impossibilities, and cries, "It shall be done."

Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love: The fellowship of kindred minds is like to that above:

When we are called to part, It gives us inward pain; But we shall still be joined in heart, and hope to meet again.

Lift Every Voice And Sing

Lift ev'ry voice and sing,
Till earth and heaven ring,
Ring with the harmonies of Liberty;
Let our rejoicing rise
High as the list'ning skies,
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.

Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us;
Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us;

Facing the rising sun of our new day begun,
Let us march on till victory is won.

PUBLIC LANDS.

[No. 234.]

Special report on the preceding register of claims.

The claim of the heirs of NICHOLAS BAUDIN to an island in Fowl river, being ten or twelve miles in length, and from two to three miles wide, is founded on the following documents:

Translated from the French.

We, lieutenant of the King, and commandant of Fort Louisiana, and Dartiguette, King's counsellor, commissary ordinary of marine, sent by the order of the court into this colony, have agreed, for the good of His Majesty's service in the advancement of this colony, to give contracts of cessions (des contrats des cessions) to several inhabitants, to wit: to Mr. Nicholas Baudin the land of Gross point, to begin at, and run along the course of, Fowl river till it reaches the oysters (oyster pass) which separate Massacre island from the main land, in order to raise cattle thereon. Of the said land we have made to him for, and in the name of, His Majesty the entire cession and transfer, with its circumstances and dependencies, in order that he, his children, heirs, or assigns, may enjoy and use it from henceforward and forever, without being liable to be troubled or disturbed in the peaceable possession thereof: not pretending, nevertheless, to derogate in any manner from the rights and pretensions which His Majesty might have thereto for the good of his service.

Done at Fort Louis, of Louisiana, this 12th November, 1710.

DARTIGUETTE and BIENVILLE. ✓

Below is written—

We, the Governor of the province of Louisiana, approve and ratify the said present concession.
Done at Fort St. Louis, this 15th September, 1713.

LA MOTHE CADALLAC. ✓

On the margin is sealed a writing, of which the following is a copy:

This day, the 16th of July, in the morning, 1761, came to the office of the Superior Council of the province of Louisiana, Mrs. Frances Paille, widow of the deceased Nicholas Baudin, called Mingoin, an inhabitant of this town, who requested us to receive in deposit, in order to be enrolled on our minutes, the above piece and the other parts, in order that recourse may be had thereto when necessary, and copies thereof delivered to whomsoever of right may demand them; and declared that she did not know how to write, nor sign this according to the ordinance. In presence of, and assisted by, Claude Boriteldet la Leine, her son-in-law.

BOUTLE,

And we, the undersigned clerk, CHATAU COU.

And joined to the original is a small paper attached thereto by a pin, on which is written, in English,

DECEMBER 27.

I certify that this present copy is conformable to the original among the archives of the Government of Mobile.

The original of this, which has been presented to me, exists in the archives of Government under my care.

Inhabitation and cultivation.

THOMAS POWELL, being sworn, saith that he knows, of his own knowledge, that land claimed by the representatives of Nicholas Baudin on Fowl river, called the island, has been inhabited and cultivated since the year 1804, and that he believes it was inhabited and cultivated before that period: and that four or five acres had been cultivated.

THOMAS POWELL.

The claim of the heirs of JOSEPH CHASTANG to a tract of land called St. Louis, lying on the west side of Mobile river, three miles above the town of Mobile, is founded on the following documents:

Notice to the Commissioner.

To the Commissioner of Land Claims for that part of Louisiana which lies east of Pearl river: Be pleased to take notice, that Gabriele Montelimar, widow of the late Joseph Chastang, now deceased, and Pierre Chastang, Eugene Chastang, Bruno Chastang, Elizabeth Chastang, Benjamin Dubroca, (husband of Jeanne Chastang,) Daniel Jussant, (husband of Magalatte Chastang,) and Manette Chastang, heirs at law of the said Joseph Chastang, do claim a tract of land lying one league from the town of Mobile, known by the name of St. Louis, bounded on the north by the creeks called Boucouma and Techibeau, on the south by the Cheateague creek, on the east by the river, on the west by vacant land, containing about one hundred and fifty arpents front, with the same number deep; which tract of land was originally granted on the 7th November, 1733, by Monsieur Bienville, Governor, and Salmon, commissary ordinary of Louisiana, to M. Diron, by whom it was transferred to Charles Marie de la Lande, and sold eventually, on the 6th of June, 1746, to Joseph Barbant, from whom it passed to his sons Louis, Joseph, and Antoine Barbant, and was by them sold on the 19th of July, 1759, to Monsieur de Bonville, and descended by inheritance through Jean Baptiste Louisa to Marguerite Clavallier Deville, by whom and her husband, Peter Mary Cabazet, it was sold in 1797, and the sale confirmed on the 30th June, 1807, to John Baptiste Lorending, and by him sold on the 25th August, 1807, to Joseph Chastang: all of which will more fully appear from the original documents accompanying this notification. Wherefore, the widow of the said Joseph Chastang, and the heirs at law above mentioned, claim the said tract of land in the proportions established by the laws existing at the time of the decease of the said Joseph Chastang, which took place on the — day of —, in the year of —.

All of which is respectfully submitted, in their behalf, by their attorney in fact; as witness my hand this 13th day of June, 1813.

notoriety that many documents relating to real and personal estate in Louisiana and the Floridas had been removed or destroyed by various accidents.

In addition to the foregoing reasons, which were and are perfectly satisfactory to my mind that the claim is a genuine and valid one, I know, from repeated conversations with many of the ancient and respectable inhabitants of Mobile, that this claim has ever been considered by them as a bona fide one, and I believe no difference of opinion exists among them on the subject.

I have always been of opinion, and remember in some instances to have unreservedly expressed the opinion, that this claim, as reported by the former commissioners, was confirmed by the act of March 3, 1819, and that it would be so held by the judicial tribunals. I am also of opinion that a certificate would have been granted in the first instance but for the after report of the commissioner appended to the original record of the claim, which was regarded by the register and receiver as an intimation of the opinion of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, which they were well aware would control any act of theirs in relation thereto. The subsequent proceedings, so far as I was concerned in them, are fully explained by the report in connexion with this statement.

By order of John B. Hazard and John H. Owen, commissioners of private land claims in the State of Alabama, now sitting in Mobile, I have surveyed the eastern boundary of the above tract of land, and making due allowance for the magnetic variation between the time of the original survey and the present time, find the lines, according to the bearings and distances, to agree with the boundary designated in the old survey as above represented. The northern and western limits of the fort property, as surveyed and sold by the government, are laid down and its relative position shown. Seventy-six feet nine inches is the nearest point of approximation of the above tract with the land sold.

SPECIAL REPORT No. 2.

Claim of the heirs of Nicholas Baudin to an island in Fowl river, called "Grosse Point or l'Isle Mon Louis," estimated to contain about 14,360 arpents.

This claim is founded on a French concession given at Fort St. Louis on November 12, 1710, by Bienville, lieutenant of the King, and commandant of Fort Louis, and by Darteguiette, commissary ordinary of the marine.

These officers, in their deed of concession to Baudin, state their power as emanating from the court to make grants of cession ("des contracts de cession") in the province of Louisiana; and under this authority it appears they conceded to Nicholas Baudin, the ancestor of the present claimants, the island or tract of land called Grosse Point. Beneath the concession is an approval and ratification of it by Lamothe Cudilac, the governor of Louisiana, signed on September 15, 1718.

It also appears from a writing appended to the document above referred to, signed by Bontru, and certified by Chantalou, clerk, that Madame Paille, widow of N. Baudin, the original grantee, presented at the office of the superior council of the province of Louisiana the aforesaid deed of concession, together with its approval and ratification, with a request that they would receive the said documents "in deposit, in order that they might be enrolled on the minutes of the superior council, that recourse might be had thereto when necessary." Thus far the steps taken in this concession were, as far as this board have an opportunity of ascertaining, in accordance with the usages of the French government in granting lands in its provinces; nor are we aware of any regulation which restricted the authorities of that government in the quantity they might grant. Two certificates were also presented to the board signed, first, by James de la Sompaye, notary public, dated June 16, 1783; and, secondly, by Grimarest, Spanish commandant at Mobile, stating that the originals, the subjects of which have been recited, existed at that time in the archives of the government at Mobile. Several witnesses prove that the tract claimed has been inhabited and cultivated from a period prior to 1761 to the present time. The occupancy being uninterrupted for so long a period, as is proven, first, under the French grant by which the tract was granted, and successively under the English and Spanish governments, is deemed strongly corroborative of the original grant.

This claim is not encumbered with mesne conveyances, but is still in the possession of the descendants of the original grantor.

From the facts here submitted, the undersigned are of opinion that the foregoing claim is entitled to the favorable consideration of Congress.

All which is respectfully submitted.

SPECIAL REPORT No. 3.

Claim of the legal representatives of Joseph Chastang and of Baptiste Laurendine to a tract of land called St. Louis, situate between Three-mile creek, Mobile river, Chickasaw, Bogue and Bouc Houma, and estimated to contain 22,500 arpents.

The original title to this tract the claimants allege to have existed in a Mons. Diron, in virtue of a grant to him by Bienville and Salmon, the former governor, and the latter commissary, "ordonnateur," of the province of Louisiana, dated November 7, 1733.

Of the existence of this grant, the only evidence is contained in a conveyance of said tract, executed June 6, 1746, by Charles Maria de Lalande and his wife, in favor of Joseph Barbeant de Boisdoree and his wife, in the presence of Miligar, notary, and by him attested. In that conveyance the tract called St. Louis is sold to its full extent, as originally granted to Mons. Diron in the manner above mentioned, without reciting its quantity or its boundaries, and without pointing out in what way the said Lalande and his wife derived their title to it. This is the first authenticated transfer of the above tract. The second appears to have been made on July 19, 1759, by the heirs of J. Barbeant de Boisdoree to a Mons. de Bonville; the proof of which transfer is a certificate dated New Orleans, July 17, 1763, signed by Louis Boisdoree, wherein he ratifies the sale to De Bonville, made by his brothers Joseph and Antoine on the day above cited, and mentions that the tract sold was derived by inheritance from his (Louis Boisdoree's) father, and that he had received his share of the purchase money. Another proof of this transfer is a certificate of Pierre Annibal Deville, chevalier of the order of St. Louis, and ancient lieutenant of the King at Mobile, dated December 28, 1763, given to De Bonville aforesaid to enable him to procure a confirmation of his title from De Abbadie, wherein it is stated that De Bonville had, for about four years and a half, owned and been in possession of the plantation called St. Louis, with its full extent, according to the ancient titles, commencing at Bayou Chatogue, (now Three-mile creek;) that he had purchased it on July 19, 1759, of Louis, Joseph, and Antoine Barbeant Boisdoree, whose father had purchased it of Charles Maria de Lalande de Apremont.

Then follows the confirmation by De Abbadie, of which the following is a translation: "I, the director general, commanding for the King at New Orleans, certify that the above-mentioned plantation of right belongs absolutely, as well as its appendages, to Mons. De Bonville, in conformity with the intentions of his most Christian Majesty, and with the power which he has given to his governors and ordonnateurs to permit all his subjects to establish themselves in the department of Mobile where they might think proper.

"In testimony whereof, I have signed the present certificate, and have caused the seal of my arms to [L. S.] be thereunto affixed, and the same countersigned by my secretary.

"ABBADIE

"MOBILE, December 28, 1763.

"By his excellency: DUVIRGE."

The next claimant of the foregoing tract seems to have been John Baptist Luser, from whom it descended to Margaretta Chabalin Deville, of whom it was purchased by John Baptist Laurendine; all of which appears from the following statement:

On May 30, 1807, Cabaret Detresses gave a power of attorney to Hazeur Delorme to represent him in everything requisite to convey a tract of land in the district of Mobile of which he was coproprietor, which said tract had been sold to Baptist Laurendine. This power of attorney was executed in Louisiana before a justice of the peace and two witnesses. On June 3, 1807, Louis Hazeur Delorme, before a notary at New Orleans, and in presence of witnesses, as attorney in fact of Mr. Pierre Marie Cabaret Detresses, in right of his wife, Margaretta Chabalin Deville, conveys to John Baptist Laurendine, represented in that place by his son John Baptist, acting under a power of attorney from his father, certified by Francis Maximilian Maxent, commandant at Mobile, May 20, 1807, a plantation situate upon said post of Mobile, fronting the river St. Louis, (now Chickasaw bouge,) which plantation is known by the name of St. Louis, and lies between Bayou Bouc, Houma, Schateauge, (now Three-mile creek,) and the great marsh, and belonged to said Delorme's principal, and to the wife of his principal, by inheritance from John Baptist Luser, deceased, their grandfather.

From John Baptist Laurendine the chain of title is unbroken to the present claimants.

John Baptist Laurendine, in his transfer of the above tract to Joseph Chastang, the next proprietor, on August 25, 1807, in presence of and certified by Maxent, the commandant at Mobile, recites it as a plantation called St. Louis, situate about a league from, bounded on the north by the Bayou Bouc, Houma, and Techicasahou, (Chickasaw bouge;) on the south by the Bayou Chatogue, (Three-mile creek;) and on the east by Mobile river; and on the west by vacant land; containing about one hundred and fifty arpents in front by an equal number in depth.

Accompanying the present claim is a plat executed by Lafon, geographical engineer at New Orleans, who certifies it to be a correct copy of the original plat of the tract purchased by Baptiste Laurendine. His certificate is dated May 27, 1807.

It appears from the evidence adduced in support of this claim that the land has been inhabited and cultivated from the year 1794 to the present time.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN HENRY OWEN,

FEBRUARY 26, 1828.

SPECIAL REPORT No. 4.

Claim of the Church of the Holy Conception, in the city of Mobile, to a lot having four hundred feet in front on Dauphin street, and three hundred feet in depth on Franklin street.

This claim differs in its character from any other laid before the present board of commissioners. The claimants, who are the trustees of the church, and represent it in its corporate capacity, exhibit no title derived from the Spanish government, neither do they allege that any such ever existed. They merely state that if a title ever issued to the church it has been lost by time or accident, and rest their claim entirely upon a long and uninterrupted possession.

The undersigned commissioners regret that they have been unable to acquire any information respecting the laws and regulations of the Spanish government in relation to the allotment of lands to the church; more especially as, without it, they are unable to place this claim in the light in which it would stand if still subject to investigation by the Spanish authorities, and entitled to the favorable interpretation of their tribunals.

That the government of Spain has always extended a fostering hand towards its ecclesiastical establishments requires but a very superficial knowledge of its history and institutions to demonstrate; it has always deemed them to be its principal support and ornament, and there consequently appears to have been no limits to its liberality in their behalf. That this was more particularly the case in the colonies is inferrible from their remote situation, and from the reliance of that government on the church as an auxiliary to retain them in their allegiance to their mother country. Of all the colonies, West Florida, a comparatively recent acquisition, and lying in immediate contact with the territory of a foreign nation, seemed to require the greatest precautions to unite it firmly to the Spanish crown. The political principles of the nation in its vicinity were such as must have incurred the reprobation of an almost absolute monarch; and the heretical opinions entertained by a majority of that nation could have excited little less than sentiments of the deepest indignation in a king pre-eminently Catholic.

To guard against dangers so imminent, by strengthening the loyalty and faith of the inhabitants, a resort would necessarily be had to the ecclesiastical arm; that the latter was constantly exerting itself to avert evils of such magnitude there can be but little doubt; and that there was occasion for such exertions is evident from the 8th regulation of Gayoso to prevent the intrusion of heretic preachers.

With views so similar, and interests so nearly identified, there was nothing to sever and everything to unite them for the purposes of mutual support. The prerogative of the King, too, with respect to the church in these provinces, considered as obtained by conquest, among which were his transatlantic possessions, was much greater than in those which were deemed the original inheritance of the crown; the dependence of the church being on that account more immediately on the crown, the reciprocal duty of protection by the crown was a necessary result. It cannot be a matter of surprise, then, if the premises be duly weighed, that the church should ask no grant of land already allotted to it and set apart for its use. From the government there was nothing to apprehend, and still less from the inhabitants, whose awe and reverence for consecrated property would have been a most effectual safeguard from their encroachments. Standing in the relation in which it did to the Spanish government, there could be no hesitation on the part of the latter, if still exercising dominion, in acknowledging their rights, and in effectually securing their enjoyment of them.

Of the different species of evidence serving to prove a title under the Spanish government, none is perhaps more conclusive than that which manifests a long and undisturbed occupancy. The government of the United States have acted upon this principle in the various acts passed for the purpose of confirming individuals in the possession of lands which they have inhabited and cultivated at particular periods.

The present claim seems to be entitled to the same liberal provision. The lot is proved, by the testimony of old and respectable inhabitants, to have been more than thirty years in the possession and use of the church as a cemetery. Its dimensions may be easily ascertained from mere inspection. Individuals who inhabited and cultivated lots prior to April 15, 1813, have had the same allowed them as donations. The claim of the church not answering the strict requirements of the law, although in its character altogether more meritorious than those of the individuals just mentioned, and under the foregoing considerations, we feel ourselves constrained to recommend the present claim for confirmation.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

ST. STEPHEN'S, February 29, 1828.

SIR: We have forwarded with this a supplementary report upon a claim of Lewis Judson to a lot in Mobile, presented on the 30th November last, after the time prescribed by law for receiving claims had expired.

We have also forwarded a list of the Spanish commandants of Mobile, taken from the Spanish records by the clerk of this board

Very respectfully, your obedient servants,

JOHN B. HAZARD,
JOHN HENRY OWEN,

Board of Commissioners for the adjustment of Land Claims in the State of Alabama.
HON. GEORGE GRAHAM, Commissioner of the General Land Office, Washington.

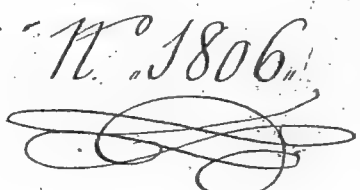

ST. STEPHEN'S, February 29, 1828.

Lewis Judson presented a claim on November 30, 1827, founded on a grant lost by time and accident, to a lot in the town of Mobile, having thirty-seven feet front on Royal street, and extending back to the river; the occupation of which is proven from 1809 to the present time. It is the opinion of the undersigned that had the said Judson presented his claim to the aforesaid lot within the time prescribed by law, it would have been entitled to confirmation for thirty-seven feet on Royal street, and extending back one hundred and twenty feet, provided the said Judson had not received a donation by virtue of improvement and occupancy, or had a similar claim to the present one confirmed for any part of the lot above described, or for any lot adjoining it.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN B. HAZARD,
JOHN HENRY OWEN,

Board of Commissioners for the adjustment of Land Claims in the State of Alabama.

FAMILY REUNION IN TILLINGHAST HOME

Mrs. Rodney Darnell (Hermia Bilbo) of Juneau, Alaska, and Mrs. Kenneth Clark (Ada Bilbo) of Klamoth Falls, Oregon, formerly of Ocean Springs are guests of Mrs. Tillinghast, their sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams of Gerber, Calif., brother of Mrs. Tillinghast, left to return to their home last Wednesday after a visit with Mrs. Tillinghast.

The family group enjoyed a reunion last Sunday in Ocean Springs, their old home. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Palmer and children, Sabbie and W. C. Jr., Mrs. Palmer being a sister of Mrs. Tillinghast (Hattie Bilbo) of Anniston, Ala., Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Williamson of Mobile, Ala., Mrs. Williamson (Eula Bilbo) being a sister of the family also, and Mr. Ray Bilbo (brother of the family), and Mrs. Tillinghast and children, Laura, Eula Mae, and Buddie.

Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Darnell, who are on their first visit to Ocean Springs and Mobile in several years, will remain another week longer. They expect to visit Mrs. Palmer, a sister, in Anniston, Ala., before returning to the Pacific Coast.

This is the first time the family has been together in twenty-five years.

En route home Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Darnell will stop for a few days in Los Angeles and San Francisco. Mrs. Darnell will sail from Seattle for her home in Juneau, Alaska.

'Long John' and Tom Bilbo represented Jackson County

The delegates who assembled in the tiny town of Washington in Adams County, July 7, 1817, to write the first constitution for the State of Mississippi were, according to the history written in 1890 by J. P. H. Claiborne, "for personal respectability, moral worth and intelligence . . . not inferior to any that ever assembled in any country."

There were 47 delegates representing 14 counties, one of which was Jackson. David Holmes was chosen president and the convention completed its task in 38 days. An election statewide was held September 1-2, 1817, and Holmes, who had been the last governor of the Mississippi Territory, became governor of the 20th state to join the union. It had been a territory since 1798.

Historian Claiborne, whose father was an army general in the war of 1812, an uncle the governor of the Territory 1801-5, and himself a former member of Congress, gave brief biographical sketches of the 1817 delegates. Most of them were natives of the older states on the Atlantic seaboard. Some were substantial planters and others lawyers; and most were from the aristocratic landed gentry.

JACKSON COUNTY, which was formed in 1812 and included half of what is now Harrison County and most of George County, sent "Long John" McLeod and Thomas Bilbo. As far as I can learn, neither was a resident of the coastal area. Later McLeod was a state senator from a district made up of five southeastern counties. Claiborne said he was at "one" and the same time a carle Scotsman and a true American."

Thomas Bilbo, his colleague, was a surveyor who came from Georgia, and a man of intelligence. He later moved to Louisiana. An old newspaper clipping I have says the first election in Jackson County was held on May 24 and 25, 1813, at the home of a Thomas Bilbo in what is now George County.

Mississippi's first constitution was superseded by the second adopted in 1832, the third in 1861 and the fourth, the one presently in effect, in 1890. The constitution of 1917 limited the terms of the governor and lieutenant governor to two years and specified that each should have been a resident of the state for five years and own six hundred acres of land or real estate worth $2,000.

SENATORS WERE elected on staggered terms of three years, the first elected Senate to be divided into three classes. Thereafter the terms of one-third would expire each year and their successors elected for three years. Representatives would be elected annually. State officers were elected by the general assembly as the legislative body was then called.

Other provisions set up the judiciary system, qualifications of voters and other requirements for the government to function.

The constitution having been adopted and approved by the President of the United States, and under its provisions Holmes was elected governor and Duncan Stewart lieutenant governor, along with members of the legislature. Governor Holmes issued a proclamation calling the legislature into session at Washington on the first Monday of October 1817.

The legislature completed organizing the state government by electing executive and judicial officers and enacting general laws to meet the requirements of statehood. Before recessing until December, Thomas H. Williams and Walter Leake were elected as the first U. S. senators from the state. Subsequent sessions completed organizing government at all levels. George Poin-dexter succeeded Holmes as governor in 1820 and his administration expanded the educational system, enacted many laws, bought the land belonging to the Choctaw nation and named a commission to locate a site for the state's capital.

AFTER COMPETITION, controversy and debates the purchase of half sections of land at $1.25 an acre in Hinds County was made and Jackson became the seat of government. During the administration of Gov. Walter Leake who served from 1822 to 1825. The first session of the legislature in Jackson met Jan. 23, 1822. During early years of statehood, the legislature abolished an old law of imprisonment for debt.

Of course many laws had been enacted by the territorial government and brought forward into the statutes of the state. Most were based on old laws and customs brought to the states from England and traveled southward from the original 13 colonies into Mississippi and other new southern states. But they have been repealed or amended to conform with present day life.

The first senator to represent the district of which Jackson County was a part was Josiah Skinner, who served from 1817 to 1819. Old records don't show who first sat in the House of Representatives, but a McManis is shown as representing the county in 1820.

and was an interesting and enjoyable affair. The house was beautifully decorated in pink and green, and softly lighted with many candles. Directly over a decorated chair to which Miss Krebs sat was suspended a large heart-shaped receptacle, and as the party marched into the room a beautiful march was played by Mrs. Arthur Terrison. Three little girls, Helen Powell, Marguerite Pickett and Alda Krebs pulled the ribbons that opened the receptacle and loosed a shower of sachet bags which fell about the chair and shoulders of Miss Krebs. Afterwards, to the sweet strains of music a large basket was brought to by two little girls. Ruth Jenkins and Flora Powell, who made pretty little speeches. The basket was opened and the gifts were presented by Gladys Krebs, with an appropriate speech. Cake and punch were then served, and the remainder of the evening was then spent in dancing and other amusements. A large brides cake, covered with pink and green icing and lighted candles was presented to Miss Krebs.

Baptiste Chastang and his wife Centennial Chastang, two shining lights in the colored social set of Creole town, a shaded section in the northern part of the city, were tried before Judge Chidsey Tuesday, on a charge of retailing vinous and spirituous liquors, otherwise and commonly known as booze and beer, contrary to the statute, etc. It seems that Baptiste has been giving a series of moonlight picnics and dances at "Pickwick Park," much to the detriment of the peace and tranquility of that particular neighborhood, and our alert sheriff watched the last affair of the kind and discovered sufficient evidence, in the way of a suit case full of whiskey and sacks and tuns of beer in bottles, to warrant the arrest of the couple on the above charge. Judge Chidsey promptly found them guilty and sentenced them to sixty days each in the county jail.

HELP PREVENT FOREST FIRES"

The Call-News Dispatch,

Mrs. Cora Barnett, "Real Daughter of the South"

Cora Barnett of Citronelle lives in the house her father, Cyrus Chastang, carpenter, soldier and Methodist minister, built in 1888 just eight years before she was born. Mrs. Barnett recently celebrated her 95th birthday amid "dozens and dozens and dozens" of well wishers.

A "real daughter" of the Confederacy, Mrs. Barnett is the daughter of Emma Estella Hester, who lived to be 103 years old, and Cyrus Chastang of Company D, Alabama Volunteers Army of the Confederacy. After enlisting at the old town of Mauvilla, Chastang fought at Natchez, Vicksburg and in all the major battles in that area.

Although not seriously injured, a mini-ball which was almost spent crashed through some bushes and hit his hip while he lay resting on the ground. In later years this injury would bother him greatly, but he refused to accept the Confederate pension offered to him by the State of Alabama, feeling that others had paid a far greater price than he.

In 1923 Chastang's daughter married Stuart Roland Barnett, an attorney, who died in 1966 after a long and successful law and teaching career.

Mrs. Barnett, successful in her own right, is a long-time member of the Electra Semmes Colston Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy and one of only two real daughters in Mobile County. She's the author of three books: The History of Citronelle (published twice), Creole Cookin' (in its third printing) and Fabulous Iron Lacework of New Orleans. She donated the proceeds from her second printing of her history book to the Citronelle Historical Society, hoping to help the city with its newly restored railroad depot museum (ca. 1905).

Says Mrs. Barnett about the ironwork book: "I did a lot of research to get the different patterns. In the early days the houses were so close together down in the old quarter [French Quarter in New Orleans] that they couldn't grow greenery, so the Frenchmen got the idea to make the iron lacework in the patterns of flowers for the balconies."

Besides writing, Mrs. Barnett, a self-proclaimed avid reader, loves to read about the War Between the States and took an active part in organizing the Annual Reenactment of the Surrender at Citronelle when Southern soldiers, under Gen. Richard Taylor's command, lay down their arms in the last major surrender of the war.

Mrs. Barnett says, "I have a pair of shoes that Union Gen. U.S. Grant signed. He was a friend of some old friends of ours and at her wedding reception he signed the bottom of her shoe and I have those shoes."

Mrs. Barnett has tried to sell these autographed shoes to some Northern cities with which Grant was associated so she could donate the money to the Citronelle Museum. Perhaps if she is successful she could use the money to purchase an item which originally belonged to Confederate Gen. Richard Taylor which would be more appreciated by area patrons.

Cyrus Chastang would be most proud of the many accomplishments of his own "real daughter" of distinction.

Re: Dr. John Chestang Claim
Mobile County, Alabama

Dear Mrs. McClendon:

This office has completed our review of your mineral interest from the Chestang Heirship in Mobile County, Alabama. In doing such, we have reviewed the Court files in the Circuit Court action, a cursory review of the Land Records of Mobile County, Alabama, and a review of the records of the Alabama State Oil and Gas Board located in Mobile, Alabama.

Our findings are as follows:

A. The mineral interest as owned by the Chestang heirs in Fractional Sections 42 and 43 was fully perfected by the Final Decree in Case No. CB-83-500163 on December 31, 1986. Each of you as direct descendant in the Chestang heirship has your undivided mineral interest in the entire claim, with the exception of a part of Lot 8. As such, there is no need for you to prosecute any Court action at all on this matter.

B. Upon review of the Oil and Gas records of the State of Alabama, we find as to your mineral interest that as of this time there is no effective production on same. A dry hole, or unproductive well, was drilled on your interest in approximately 1983. There is production in the general area of this claim, but our readings of the unit diagrams show none of your specific property is included in any of same.

Bilbo Dies Thursday At New Orleans

8-22-1947

Progressive Heart
Failure Given As Cause Of Death

By The Associated Press

New Orleans, Aug. 21.—Senator Theodore G. Bilbo of Mississippi, master of filibuster and sharp-tongued champion of white supremacy, died here today without ever having taken his disputed seat in the 80th Congress.

Death of the 69-year-old Democrat left forever unanswered the question of whether he was entitled to his third term in the Senate, from which he was barred on bi-partisan charges of unfitness when Congress convened last January.

At that time Bilbo, seriously ill with cancer, was accused of intimidating negro voters during his campaign, and with misusing his office for personal gain in dealings with war contractors. Both charges had been investigated by Senate committees.

After a two-day fight on the issue, the Senate agreed to postpone a decision pending improvement of Bilbo's health. Meanwhile, he was allowed to draw his Senate salary.

"If I live, I'll be back with my fighting clothes on," Bilbo declared when the compromise was announced.

But the senator, who had undergone one mouth operation for cancer here in August of 1946, returned for another last January and a third in June. He spent two weeks in July receiving treatment in a Vicksburg, Miss. hospital, and on Aug. 7 entered Foundation hospital here for a complete physical checkup.

"Heart Failure"

He developed a nerve inflammation which partially paralyzed him, and later a blood clot on the lungs. Doctors said these things, rather than the cancer, were principal immediate causes of death.

Doctors declared the death as due to "progressive heart failure." Bilbo died at 1:00 p. m.

The name Bilbo and the phrase "white supremacy" have become inseparable in the public mind. The outspoken Mississippian had introduced a bill in Congress to ship the country's 13,000,000 negroes back to Africa. He publicly admitted having joined the Ku Klux Klan. Last year he published a book entitled "Take Your Choice—Segregation or Mongrelization."

Asked who would pick southern cotton if the negroes were moved away, Bilbo once declared: "the mechanical cotton picker—

Who Died Monday

Tate Bilbo, 73-year-old negro and employe at the ice plant in Pascagoula for many years, died Monday at his home here. Funeral services and interment were conducted at Gautier, his native town, Wednesday afternoon.

One of the old-time residents of this section, Bilbo was known by scores of white people as well as negroes. At the close of the Civil War, Tate's father, Ned Bilbo, gave him into the keeping of the grandfather of Hermes Gautier. He worked at the sawmill at Gautier for many years and later was employed at the ice plant until his health and age made active work impossible.

DIED FROM GRIEF.

DEATH OF ADELE JOSEPH CHASTANG.

Adele Joseph Chastang died Thursday morning at 7:15 o'clock, at the residence on Joachim street, between Government and Conti, where she had come but a few days ago to attend her dying mother. She complained last Thursday night, but little was thought of the matter. It was afterward found that she was grieving about her mother, Catherine Joseph, and when her mother died the shock killed her. She leaves two little daughters and four brothers to mourn her loss.

She was the sister of Phillis Joseph, and wife of Joseph F. Chastang, of Chastang's bluff.

She was a music teacher and an accomplished musician, being a graduate of the Catholic Creole school, taught by the Sisters.

The Rev. Father Shaw administered the sacraments of the Catholic church during her illness and she died in the full faith of that religion. So peacefully and quietly did she pass away that those watching around her bed did not realize for some time afterward that the spirit had left the body.

Dear Jean,

Thank you so much for the information on the BILBO and WILSON families! I especially appreciate the pages (104-109) from the book Bilbo and Kin by Polly Ray. Does the book contain any other information on William Ray Bilbo's parents, John and Mary? Does it mention the sources for this information?

I have very little information on the James E. MALONE who married Charlotte (Lottie) Bilbo. According to the 1880 census, he was born in Alabama circa 1844. Does this match with any of the James Malones in your files? I have not been able to locate James and Charlotte in the 1870 census, but their daughter Cora was born in 1868, supposedly in Mississippi. Thanks for pointing out that many families crossed between Mobile County, AL and Jackson County, MS. That information may help narrow my search for the parents of James Malone.

Once again, I would appreciate any information you can give me. I have enclosed a self-addressed stamped envelope and a check for $3.00 to cover the cost of copies.

Thank you,

Dear Jean,

Thank you so much for the additional information on the BILBO and MALONE families! Could you please send me copies of pages 3 and 5 from the book Bilbo and Kin by Polly Ray? Does the book contain a chart (similar to that on page 19) for the children of John Peter/Jean Pierre Bilbo? I tried to write Polly Ray at the 1982 address given in the book, but my letter was returned marked "Moved-No forwarding address".

In addition, does the book contain any information on a James Bilbo who married Mary Caroline CAMERON in 1840 in Marion County, Mississippi? I was recently contacted by a man from Bay St. Louis, MS who is researching the Cameron line. He said he found the record of the above marriage, and he wanted to know if it was the same James C. Bilbo who was my ancestor. If James C. Bilbo (son of William Ray Bilbo) did marry Mary Caroline Cameron in 1840, the census records indicate he had two wives at the same time. I have a feeling the other James was a cousin of James C., but I can't prove anything via a hunch.

If you don't mind, could you please check your files for information on the RYAN family? William Ray Bilbo married Charlotte Ryan (daughter of Isaac Ryan) ca 1818. Charlotte was listed in Jackson County in the 1850 census. I'm trying to determine when she died. The 1860 census listed a "C. Bilbo", but I'm not sure that she was Charlotte because some of the information did not fit. Naturally, I would be interested in any information on Charlotte or her ancestors.

Thanks again for all of your help! You have been invaluable to me, particularly since so little information is available at the courthouse. As usual, I have enclosed a check for $3.00 to cover the cost of copies. Please let me know if I need to send some more money.

Sincerely,

Linda F. Wilson

P. S. I will send you family group sheets for my lines with Jackson County connections once I have a little more information. I have the location of J. C. Bilbo's grave in Chickasha, Oklahoma, and I will visit it next week as part of a trip to Wichita, Kansas. I hope to find the graves of some of his children as well.

Descendants of Thomas Bilbo who settled on Lake Charles in the 1830s are pictured in front of the old Bilbo home which was formerly Cantonment Atkinson. The two-story log building was encased in mill-planed lumber in the 1850s by Thomas' son, Joseph. From left, the family members are Laura
